SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The public school, Prof. J. C. McAdams, principal, closes this week with fitting and beautiful exercises. This school has a strong corps of instructors and is making a good record. Last Sunday was a high day in Shelbyville. The Odd Fellows turned out in great shape, and had their Thanksgiving services at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Seymour, of the First Baptist Church, delivered the address.

"May Day" was observed at the A. M. E. Church. About $20.00 were collected. The students of Turner Normal Institute, feeling a special interest in "May Day," turned out in full force and contributed much to the success of the occasion. Prof. J. C. McAdams delivered the address at night.

A troupe of Turner Normal students gave a concert at Wartrace last Saturday night to a crowded house. They returned there same night.

Dr. J. A. Jones left last Saturday night for Pulaski, where he was invited to preach the Odd Fellows' Thanksgiving sermon. He returned Tuesday.

College colors are flying every way one turns and things are all agog looking to the commencement of Turner Normal Institute on the 30th. Visitors are expected from all over the state.

Two big baseball games are on the boards for commencement week, to be played on T. N. I. campus.

Rev. B. G. Gordan is attending the Electoral College at Franklin this week and visiting friends in Columbia.

BAUGH-BELL.

Among those present were Dr. W. C. Golden, who married the couple, Col. Wm. Woodcock, Mrs. W. C. Golden, Miss Annie Craig, Miss Eva Cannon, Messrs. R. W. Turner, G. F. Cole, L. E. Cole, P. Davis, Marion Frost, Chas. Harris, M. Dunnaway and J. W. Wyatt. Many valuable presents were presented to the couple by the clerks. At 6 o'clock the newly-wedded pair repaired to the home of the bride, where they were entertained by her mother. Many friends were present to wish the happy couple a successful journey through life. At the conclusion of the festivities Mr. and Mrs. Baugh retired to their home, No. 1502 Jackson street.
